COOL mountains
of
South Carolina

July 8-14, 2012

Housing will be in Adirondacks with 4 scouts per unit. The campsite has its own newly built bath house & restroom facilities. Meals will be in the dining hall and include a salad bar at most lunch/dinner hours.

DAILY/WEEKLY PROGRAMS

Pathfinder & Trailblazer programs designed for first-year campers or new scouts; focuses on completion of many requirements for Tenderfoot, 2nd Class, and 1st Class advancements.*

Adventure to Eagle program designed for those seeking Eagle Scout who still need to complete 3-4 Eagle-required merit badges; includes a day of whitewater rafting on the Nantahala River; additional $30.00 fee applies. Must be Star Scout or above and at least 14 years old. This is filled on a first-come-first-served basis and is limited to only 15 scouts.*

Ranger program designed for advanced scouts looking for rigorous adventure and exciting activities and may include some relevant advancement opportunities. Participants will enjoy a week of climbing, rappelling, caving, mountain biking, white water canoeing, and whitewater rafting. One night will be spent on an overnight trip; an additional $30.00 fee applies. Participants must be 14 years old or completed the 8th grade. This is filled on a first-come-first-served basis and is limited to only 20 scouts.*

Merit Badge program designed for scouts of any age and scouting experience. Up to six classes will be offered per day. See reverse side for list of merit badge opportunities.*
